The Assault on Officer Cooney. Policeman Owen Cooney of the third precinct, who was assaulted Monday night and severely who was assaulted Monday night and severely injured while attempting to arrest John McCarty on 26th street, as published in yesterday's Gras, was hurt worse than was at first supposed. The cut on the back of his head was a severe one and required several stitches in the surgical treatment. Besides the injury to his head his arm was badly injured and perhaps sprained. The officers in the third precinct have been investigating the affair ever since it happened and thus far they have arrested four persons. McCarty and James Williams were committed yesterday to await the result of the infineers injuries. Last evening Annie O'Donnell said, "Kill the ———," and struck the injured cofficer with a brick." Annie denies this accusation. She told the officers when arrested that she only said, "Hit him with a stone."

The case was called in the Police Court today and continued until the officer is able to appear.

He was at Harper's Ferry to spend the Fourta with his family, and during the afternoon he went bass fishing in the Shenandoah river flear the dam. Held Last Evening.

A meeting of the Veteran Volunteer Piremen's tion of the Commissioners to the reckless driv-ing of Police Officer West of the eighth preing of Police Officer West of the eighth pre-cinct, and asked that the matter be looked into. In his communication he says West frequently runs his horses at racing speed up and down the city streets. Lieut Gessford, in his in-dorsement upon the paper, says West has been before the Police Court several times for fast driving, as well as before the trial committee. The Commissioners have sent the papers to Maj. Moore and it is understood West will be brought before the police trial board.

THAT TIRED FEELING.

The marked benefit which people overcome by That Tired Feeling derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." J. B. Emerton, a well-known merchant of Auburn Maine, rays: "About five years ago I began to suffer with very severe PAIN IN MY STOMACH, gradually growing worse. I took Hood's Barsaparilla, being convinced that I was troubled with DYSFZPSIA complicated with LIVER AND RIDNEY troubles. I improved at once and am certainly very much better and feel more like working.

CUTICURA REMEDIES.

In the summer of 1888 a sore came on the fleshy part of my right leg, not far from the shin bone. It continued to increase in size, and evanually formed a large ulcer three inches long by two wide. I employed a regular physician, but he gave me no relief. It was very painful, and eventually part of the flesh to the hone dropped out. After suffering with it for six months I was induced to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. At this time I was completely helpless, unable to walk without crutches, and suffered greatly. In about a week the sore began to show signs of improvement, and eventually was completely healed. Another nore then broke out on my instep, but the same treatment soon cured that. I was indebted solely to the CUTICURA REMEDIES for my restoration to health. My leg is now as well as it ever was, and since then I have not been troubled with sores.
